

Statement of Interest (SOI) as an Executive Committee member of the IGFSA

I would like to express my interest as an Executive Committee member of the IGFSA. Below is my brief profile:

Raymond Selorm Mamattah is a Ghanaian. He is the Founder and President of the E-Governance and Internet Governance Foundation for Africa (EGIGFA). The entity he heads is into e-governance and internet governance advocacy. Raymond also works as an Assistant Administrative Manager in a commercial entity in Ghana spanning over 17 years work experience.

Raymond has been involved in the internet governance ecosystem for a while now. He is one of the few virtual host selected by the IGF for the upcoming 2020 global IGF virtual meeting. He was also recently selected by the ICANN's NCSG as their representative to the GNSO's Standing Selection Committee. Having being selected and trained during ICANN66 in Montreal, Canada by the ICANN's At-Large, he is an At-Large Ambassador. He is also an ICANN Fellow.

His educational qualifications include MA in Adult Learning and Global Change, MSc in Information Security and a Bachelor in Business Administration.

Raymond has a rich background that will be useful for the Executive Committee of the IGFSA if given the chance. This he is willing to bring on board in order to help in achieving the aims of objectives of the IGFSA.
