

Eduardo Santoyo

Eduardo is Colombian and count with more than 18 years of experience around internet governance topics, been very active not just at the local level with their own community but also at international one participating in organizations as ICANN, or in the regional and global internet governance forums. For seven years he was the ccTLD manager for .PE, and now he is VP of Corporate affairs at Neustar; ccTLD manager for the ccTLD.CO..